

find, worthless. Then there is a note of C. Silas Thomas for $500, which is secured by a bill of sale. It is a straight note. Mr. Stoner further secured it by a bill of sale.

(Mrs. Renn: $30 income a year.)

Then there's town houses, three town houses, the house where Mrs. Renn lives and a house across the street. The double house, I think that side has, one part, two apartments in, and then the other house. In other words, she has two apartments and a house to rent, and on up Patrick Street further up is another house.

(Mrs. Renn: Two families in that house.)

Then there's farms. There is one that can't be sold. That is at the junction of the Point of Rocks and Harpers Ferry road, and then there's a farm at Feagaville and there's a farm at Mt. Pleasant, and there's a farm at Jefferson. In other words, there's four farms.

Q What about the New Market farm?

A That's the one that was sold, $3,000.

Q Anything else in the trust, Mr. Shuff?

A Then there's some wood lots. There is a wood lot situated in Ballenger District near Feagaville, and there is another wood lot in Lewistown District, and another wood lot down in Buckeystown District in the Manor Woods. There's three wood lots.

Q The Manor Woods is practically all cut out?

A Yes, sir. Then there's nothing else except we received $1,000 part payment on the farm out at New Market, and there is a balance in the income account of $35.35.

Q How much income has the Farmers & Mechanics Bank received? A. $150.35.

Q From what source?

A Received $4.01 as a balance from the Frederick County Bank, $131.34 from the Potomac Edison, and received $15 interest on a note of C. Silas Thomas for six months. The way I understood Mr. Stoner sometime ago -- I don't know whether he had taken it up with the Judges or not -- but the idea was to leave Mrs. Renn and Mr. Troxell run the farm and she would take in the income and she give us a statement of income and disbursements once a year, and we would file that with the Court, together with the statement
